

Facebook Community Guidelines and User Information

Dear User,

You are on the corporate Facebook channel of Fresenius Kabi AG. Fresenius Kabi is a global healthcare company that specializes in lifesaving medicines and technologies for infusion, transfusion and clinical nutrition.

With this Facebook channel we would like to inform you and your friends and family about different clinical pictures like cancer, diabetes or liver insufficiency as well as about health topics such as enteral and parenteral nutrition. Our goal is to give you as much information as we can to support you in your daily life with your disease.

Our Facebook channel is intended to be a platform for exchange and dialogue. We welcome open discussions, comments, pictures, videos or links.

Fresenius Kabi works in a regulated industry. For this reason, we cannot talk about certain topics, such as prescription drugs. We also do not talk about and/or judge other companies or their products.

If you have questions, we will gladly answer them from Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. For all questions and messages that reach us outside of these hours, we will reply as soon as possible during the next business day.

Please Note

The Fresenius Kabi corporate channel serves as platform for exchange. We look forward to open discussions and comments, pictures, videos or links. Nevertheless, we are legally obliged to delete your post in the following instances:

1. Anything that may constitute medical advice
2. Spam or promotion of other service/product, or links to other sites
3. Discriminatory or derogatory comments
4. Politics & religion
5. Profanity or personal attacks
6. Promotion of illegal activity
7. Infringement on copyrights or trademarks
8. It promotes an unauthorized indication
9. It serves business or commercial purposes
10. It contains protected, confidential, sensitive or nonpublic information
11. It doesn't follow the guidelines of Facebook and the conditions of use

We will actively review all of your comments. If you repeatedly post content that falls into these categories, you may be prevented from participating further on this page, and/or reported to Facebook. We ask you to be respectful when interacting with others on this channel.

Moreover, You Should Know

Discussion of medical and health topics should never be construed as medical advice. You are advised to contact a health care professional in your area if you need medical advice.
